

A family celebration in Amarillo—Sept. 12-14

Klaus to speak at Lutheran Hour Rally

MAKE YOUR PLANS TO COME...

The 65th Lone Star District Lutheran Laymen's League Convention will gather Sept. 12-14 at Prince of Peace Lutheran Church, Amarillo. Called a "Family Celebration," Prince of Peace Lutheran Church will host activities of interest for children, youth, and adults.

Activities will begin at 2:00 p.m. with a district board meeting and will include a Friday evening meal and fellowship followed by a worship service and family entertainment.

SATURDAY HIGHLIGHTS

Saturday will begin with a Bible study and will then feature a celebration of LHM ministries in the district and around the world.

The highlight for Saturday will be a Lutheran Hour Rally at the Amarillo Globe News Performing Arts Center at 4:00 p.m. Pastor Ken Klaus will be the preacher for the rally.

Saturday evening will culminate with a great meal and banquet, concluding our formally scheduled activities.

SUNDAY SERVICES

For those who can stay for Sunday, we will worship together at 8:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. Pastor Ken Klaus will be the guest preacher for the morning. Sunday school and Bible class will be at 9:45 a.m.

ATTRACTIONS

We invite you to enjoy some of the Amarillo area attractions, including Palo Duro Canyon, which is located about 20 miles southwest of Amarillo.

New Ambassador Manager to be featured speaker

Faith Spelbring serves as Ambassador Manager for Lutheran Hour Ministries (LHM). She sets up procedures to recruit and train Ambassadors and Ambassador Coordinators in Zones and Districts. She coordinates annual LHM Sunday efforts and is working to improve communication between ambassadors, zone and district leaders, and LHM headquarters.

Spelbring

Faith will give an overview of LHM's new emphasis as well as her view of the role of an ambassador. This will be helpful for the Lone Star District in achieving the goal of an ambassador in every congregation.
